

Azacca™

Use in brewing:

Dual purpose hop. Azacca™, named for the Haitian god of agriculture, is a hop big in citrus and tropical fruit notes. Its excellent aromatic qualities have quickly made Azacca™ a go-to hop for late and dry hop additions in varying styles of beer. Used for both bittering and aroma.

Origin/History:

Descendent of Northern Brewer and Summit™, it's a cross between Toyomidori and an unknown variety. Bred by the American Dwarf Hop Association. Released in 2013.
